

What should we think about the salvation of people of other religions?

Theological Exclusivism	Theological Inclusivism			Theological Pluralism
1. Jesus is full revelation and the Truth by which all other religions are judged. 2. Jesus' work is the only thing that saves us. 3. One needs to actually hear and respond to the message of Jesus for Salvation.	(#3 is not as strong) One is still saved by Jesus' work, but may still be saved without a conscious faith in Jesus. This is a mystery, and we cannot know how it exactly works.	(#3 is not as strong) One is still saved by Jesus' work, but may still be saved without a conscious faith in Jesus. They would have to still: 1) believe in one good powerful God, 2) be aware that they do not perfectly obey this God, 3) be aware that nothing they can do can save them, 4) put themselves on God's mercy to save them.	(#2 not as strong, #3 not held) One is still saved by Jesus' work, but can actually be saved while following another religion sincerely.	(#1, #2, and #3 not held) One is not exclusively saved by Jesus' work; Jesus is just one of many ways to God.
